Ben Bynum, Bryan Poff May Face At-Large District Vote

Failure on the part of Potter County Commissioners to redraw precinct lines in compliance with the 1971 Texas congressional redistricting bill may cause at-large elections in a three-county area.

Selden Hale, Potter County Republican chairman, speculated lack of action by commissioners could cause state representatives in Districts 65 and 67 to run at large rather than in a two-district election.

The at-large situation would put Rep. Byran Poff, who represents Randall County in District 67, and Rep. Ben Bynum, who announced last month for re-election in District 65, running for office before Randall County voters.

Bynum attracted attention from county residents recently when he championed a proposal to combine Potter and Randall Counties.

Poff, representative for District 67 which includes Randall County, part of Potter County and Carson County, opposed the idea predicting it could not be done even if desired.

"This raises an interesting probability of perhaps making two legislators from Potter County run at large in a district comprised of Potter, Randall and Carson Counties," Hale said.

But no one is certain just what the failure to redraw the lines may mean.

Hale said he believes an attorney general's ruling may be necessary before a definite decision is made.

"The problem is when the state changed the districts, they split some of

Sharp Is Found Guilty

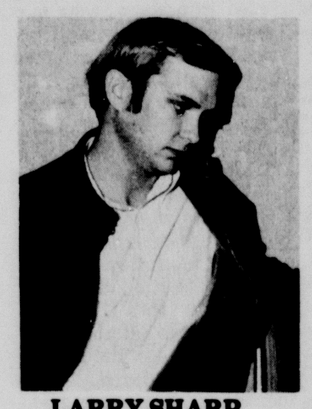
BY ELAINE PEEPLES

A county court jury found Gary Curtis Sharp, 20, of Amarillo, guilty Tuesday afternoon of second degree negligent homocide and sentenced him to three years probation.

The case against Sharp resulted from a car-pickup accident July 31 in Amarillo in which Matthew Marion Bruce, 18, son of Randall County Democratic chairman Marion Bruce, was killed.

Bruce was a passenger in a car driven by Jimmy Wynne, 18, of Amarillo, son of Amarillo Police Captain and Mrs. L. R. Wynne. Sharp was driving the pickup.

Following the guilty verdict, Jimmy Wynne said, "I'm very glad. Now I just hope they send him to the pen."



LARRY SHARP

A surprise state's witness David Lee Watson, 19, of Amarillo, testified to hearing Sharp remark on Sept. 24 in the Pizza Inn in Amarillo, "I wish I had been going 15-20 miles per hour faster so I could have killed Wynne too."

Watson, who said he was sitting at an adjacent table, said following the remark, Sharp "leaned over, looked at me and smiled."

Wynne testified that he and Bruce were driving south on Travis St. and stopped at a stop sign at 44th and Travis and then proceeded to turn left.

"I heard Matt scream and remember the impact," Wynne said. He said that he regained consciousness at the hospital and had no idea who had hit the car.

Amarillo Police Officer Wylie Pipkin said he first saw the white 1965 pickup going east on 13th. Pipkin said that the pickup was going 50 mph in a 30 mph zone and was driving on the wrong side of the roadway.

Pipkin said he attempted to stop the pickup but that the pickup accelerated, turned onto Jackson and by the time the vehicle reached 16th Street, it was going in excess of 80 mph.

The pickup ran a red light at 16th and Jackson, Pipkin said, almost colliding with a Volkswagon. He said the pickup ran another stop sign at Interstate Drive and then turned the lights off.

Pipkin said the pickup pulled onto the Interstate just east of Washington Street. Pipkin said he was driving 105 mph and that the pickup was pulling away from him. He estimated the speed of the pickup at 115.

Officer Kurt Twing said that he saw the pickup coming up behind him going south on Parker Street and that he tried to set up a roadblock but that the pickup went by him.

He said that the pickup made a turn onto 48th Street and then on to Travis and went by a roadblock set up by Officer G. D. Longstreth at 46th and Travis at a speed in excess of 65 mph.

Twing said when the pickup approached the intersection at 44th and

Christian Blasts Bynum

BY TROY MARTIN

State Representative Tom Christian of Claude loosed a double barreled blast at Rep. Ben Bynum for the Amarillo representative's proposal that Randall and Potter Counties be merged.

Christian reminded Bynum that he does not represent Randall County in the state legislature and branded the Bynum proposal as not feasible.

"Neither Ben Bynum nor Bryan Poff represent Randall County," said Christian in a statement to The News. "A redistricting board of five members including Gus Mutscher drew up new districts which leaves Bynum and Poff as the only incumbents in Randall and Potter and Counties but before a person actually represents one of the newly drawn districts he must be elected by the people and the people might well elect representatives other than those the redistricting board is trying to force on them.

"I was elected to represent Randall County until January of 1973 and I will continue to do that to the best of my ability.

"A very important special session is coming up this summer that will deal primarily with taxes and appropriations.

"I think the people of Randall County are entitled to be represented by an official that they themselves elected.

"When I chose to run for the legislature, I ran in the district in which I lived and took my cause to the people. I did not try to have myself forced upon them by a redistricting board."

Christian added that the districts drawn up by the board may well be cast aside by the courts as were those proposed by the legislature.

Choir On TV

Canyon High School choir will appear on KGNC-TV with a program of Christmas music at 4:15 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 19.

Tom Jennings, choir director, said the choir taped the program Wednesday of this week for the televised show Dec. 19.

Books Needed

If the Canyon High School Eagle Band members can collect 1500 books — paper or hardback — in time to deliver them to Amarillo this afternoon, they can add $150 to their Vienna trip fund.

Anyone who has books to donate may call Mrs. Gary Garner, 655-2495.

The offer came Tuesday from a woman who is going to use the books to stock a furniture store.

Conviction UpHeld

The conviction of Rickey Joe Witt for the sale of marijuana was affirmed Tuesday by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, according to wire service reports.

Witt was sentenced to 15 years in the penetentiary on Aug. 14, 1970, in 181st District Court. He has been in the Randall County Jail since that time.

Witt said in an interview in November, "I hope the case is reversed but if it's not I'll just go down there and do the best I can."

After Paving Policy

City Dads Okay CATV

City Commissioners awarded a CATV franchise subject to approval of an ordinance and the posting of a performance bond Monday night following several months of deliberation.

The bid was submitted by John Waggoman and Kenneth Wheatley under the name of Canyon Cablevision, and was the only bid offered.

A $50,000 performance bond must be posted, and an ordinance approved before the franchise is granted.

Provisions of the franchise call for the city to receive 2 per cent of the gross annual receipts. Maximum charges would be $30 for installation and $6.50 for one outlet.

The city reserved three channels for local use, which will be made available to schools.

Other channels will feature programs from Dallas, Amarillo, Lubbock and Fort Worth, plus a time-weather channel and several local origination channels.

In other action, the board requested an ordinance for flood plain insurance to be drawn up and presented to city developers for their suggestions before final action is taken.

Trustees Okay 1971 Audit

Canyon Public School trustees were told Tuesday night by auditor E.T. Cummings the system is in good shape financially.

After approving the audit which show total assets of $189,774, board president Dudley Moore quizzed Cummings about the school's financial condition.

"If you come out with money on hand you are doing well," Cummings said. "If you don't come out with too much money on hand."

"We want to live within our means," Moore studied.

Flood plain plan must be approved by the city in order for residents in the flood plains in Canyon to be eligible for federally subsidized insurance for flooding.

"The people who live in these areas have no possible insurance coverage without the flood plain insurance," one commissioner pointed out.

Commissioner Felix Pierce protested the 100-year flood mark, saying a flood reaching that height has never occurred in Canyon.

"It is like convicting a man on circumstancial evidence," Pierce quipped, "since there has never been a 100-year flood."

City Manager George Loudder pointed out in order to obtain the insurance the city must adopt certain regulations that would pertain to building in the area designated as the 100-year flood area by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

"The standard is 100-year flood," he explained. "And Linda Horton of Canyon was crowned United Sheriff Posses and Riding Club Queen Saturday night from a field of four contestants. The 18-year-old beauty will reign over 15 clubs in the association, and will continue to serve another year as queen of the Palo Duro Ranger Riding Club. Miss Horton is pictured with the crown, red rose bouquet and two trophies won be the Palo Duro Rangers.

Linda Horton Is Crowned Riding Queen

Linda Horton, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Horton of Canyon, was crowned queen of the United Sheriff Posses and Riding Clubs during ceremonies Saturday night.

Miss Horton, who has been Range 1 queen and queen of the local Palo Duro Rangers Riding Club, will serve a year. First runner-up was LaVonda Nolan of Dalhart. Other contestants were Carol Cole of Pampa and Kay Lynn of Amarillo.

The beauties were judged on horsemanship, poise, personality, temperment and background.

Miss Horton received a bouquet of red roses, a corsage and a crown, and will represent the 15 clubs involved in the association.

Palo Duro Rangers received two trophies during the annual meeting in Canyon Saturday. They were awarded a third place trophy for parade participation and third place in pony express.

Leon Cox of Canyon was installed as president of the organization and Bill Collins was named vice president. Lena Mae Houseman will serve as secretary and Evelyn Lamb will be treasurer.

Gus Mutscher, speaker of the Texas House who is under indictment, no longer gazes out over the hall of government at Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

His picture has been removed and there is considerable mystery surrounding its removal.

No one was willing at first to say for certain it had been removed.

Then no one was willing to say who removed it.

But when it finally was established that the picture is gone, no one would say why it was removed or if it would stay removed provided Mutscher is cleared by a jury and remains as speaker.

"I don't know for sure," Rolla Shaller, curator of exhibits, declared when asked about the picture.

"I think it has been taken down but I'm not for sure," Shaller went on.

Shaller was asked if he didn't take it down himself.

"I think I did. I'm not for sure, I took somebody's down. You'll have to talk to Mr. McClure."

Museum Director C. Boone McClure confirmed that the picture had been removed but declined to discuss the matter further.

"Call Senator Hazlewood and discuss it with him," McClure replied when asked why the picture had been taken down.

This in itself was something of a mystery since Hazlewood has no official connection with the museum.

WT Regents Meet Here Wednesday

The West Texas State University Board of Regents has called a special meeting for 1 p.m. Wednesday in the board room of the Administration Building.

The primary purpose of the meeting is to approve contracts with two architectural companies for construction of library and science buildings on campus, Dr. James P. Cornette, university president, said today.

At a meeting Oct. 23, the regents approved the firm of Hellmuth, Obata and Kassabaum, Inc., of St. Louis, Mo., to design a new science building and Wood and Associates, Inc., of Dallas to design the proposed library build-

by Troy Martin
FROM THE CANYON RIM

Dr. Eduard Schmutzer has been critical of West Texas State University for not admitting a larger number of foreign students.

If Dr. Schmutzer would look at the record he would find that foreign students get a better deal than American students from out of state.

A student from Tokyo, Japan pays $200 a semester for taking a full load at West Texas State. A student from Clayton, N.M., pays $600 while the two students may be sitting in the same clàsses and studying the same texts.

This in spite of the fact that Dr. Schmutzer says most of the foreign students he knows do not have financial problems since they either are from wealthy families or are attending school on grants supplied by their countries.

I think Canyon could do a better job as a community in relation to the foreign students we find among us. We could show them more personal hospitality, perhaps although I know several people here who go out of their way to entertain these students.

Dr. Schmutzer would like to see a special house established for foreign students. I do not think this would be good since it would tend to isolate them from the people and culture they undoubtedly came here to observe.

I think they should mix and mingle with American students and local people as much as possible learning from us and allowing us to learn from them.

I spent Sunday on A.W. Lair's ranch — the old Fuqua spread north of Amarillo. You simply could not believe that much tranquility exists in the Texas Panhandle.

Quail almost as tame as chickens free loaded in the back yard of the Lair ranch cabin at a feeder built especially for them.

We studied an old West Point Annual for 1922 which had been left in the cabin by previous occupants. We ran across one name everyone remembered. It was that of Maxwell Davenport Taylor, a beardless boy who was to become a general and help to chart the course of his country for better or for worse.

Hubert Humphrey told cheering Democrats in Texas this week that Phase III of the Nixon plan would be when the Republicans are swept from office in 1972.

But in spite of the big talk the Democrats are going to be hard pressed to find campaign issues next fall unless the administration muffs things pretty badly between now and then.

A party that saw the cost of living rise almost 30 percent in the last two terms it held the exeucutive mansion won't have too much to legitimately say about economics if Secretary Connally's plans work at all.

A party that has presided over every major war in which this country has been engaged in this century and which had a President in office to lead this country into a veritable cul de sac in Southeast Asia in 1965 won't have much to legitimately say about war next autumn.

This will be especially true if Nixon manages to disengage us in Vietnam as he seems bent on doing.

For some reason unrest in cities and on campuses has subsided and Nixon may well lay claim to restoration of law and order.

The Democrats will appeal to the farm vote but the truth is that neither party is much interested in the smaller farmers anymore.

Both the Republicans and Democrats are consumer oriented and both are dedicated to lower prices on consumer goods.

This policy simply is not compatible with good prices for farm products despite the demagoguery of Humphrey, McGovern, Kennedy et al.

The Democrats' best hope for a huge bloc vote is with labor but even here the blessing is mixed. Much of the country already views Labor Boss George Meany as little better than a sneak thief trying to grab off big pay advances for his troops while the rest of the country dutifully observes the wage-price freeze.

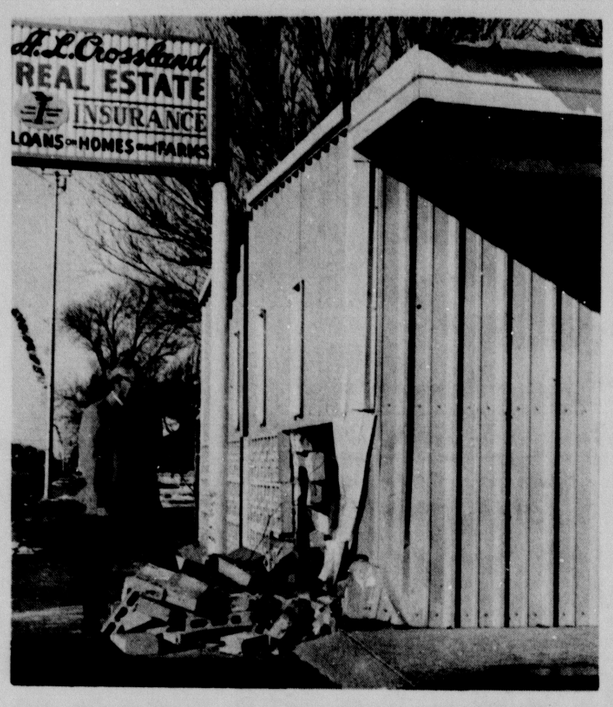
Households Interviewed About Jobs

A sample of households in Randall County will be included in a nationwide survey of employment and unemployment to be conducted the week of December 12-18 by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce.

Walter A. Freeman, Jr., director of the Bureau's Data Collection Center in Denver, in announcing the survey, said that results will be used to calculate the number of persons in the U.S. who have jobs, the number looking for work, and the percentage unemployed this month, an important measure of the nation's well-being. The survey is conducted monthly by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor.

The October survey showed that the total number of employed persons increased by 320,000 (seasonally adjusted) to a record level of 79.8 million, and the number of unemployemnt dropped to 5.8 percent of the labor force from 6.0 percent in September.

The December survey will also ask questions about any farm work done for wages or salary in 1971 and will provide up-to-date statistics on the number of persons doing farm work.



A. L. Crossland examines the exterior of his building on Fourth Avenue after a car driven by Arthur Bryan Fassauer struck the structure and hit two parked vehicles. Fassauer was taken to Neblett Hospital, but no other injuries were reported in the Tuesday morning mishap.

Vehicle Rams Building, Cars

Lou Bulman, employee at A. L. Crossland Insurance Agency, had a harried morning Tuesday just minutes after reporting for work.

Mrs. Bulman was sitting behind her desk in the office on Fourth Avenue when a car struck the building just inches away from her, crumbling the side of the structure.

Police reports show around 8:25 a.m. Tuesday a car driven by Arthur Bryan Fassauer of 420 Foster Lane in Canyon left the road and jumped onto the curb travelling west along Fourth Ave. The vehicle struck Mrs. Bulman's car, which was parked on the street, bounced off the vehicle and hit the building, then hit another parked car owned by Roger Douglas Collier of Borger.

An estimate of around $2500 was given by building owner A. L. Crossland, but definite figures were not known Wednesday.

Freeman Accepts Post In Oklahoma

H. D. Freeman, former pastor of the Canyon Calvary Baptist Church, has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church of Idabel, Okla.

Freeman and his family will move next week and begin in the new position Dec. 15.

Having served in Canyon 3½ years, Freeman came here from Whitesboro First Baptist Church where he had served eight years. He was born in Durant, Okla. and received his BA degree from Oklahoma Baptist University and his BB degree from Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth.

He served four years in the First Baptist Church of Bailey and another four years in the First Baptist Church in Floresville before moving to Whitesboro.

"Idabel is in the heart of the fastest growing industrial area of Oklahoma," Freeman said of the 6,000 population city.

The Freeman family includes Mrs. Freeman, a son Mark, 15, a daughter Marcie, 7, one son in Plane. Ken, and a daughter of Canyon, Mrs. Jim Warren.

No Lights—Hicks

Christmas just won't be the same for lots of Panhandle folks this year because Mrs. Bill Hicks of Canyon has decided against her annual yard decorations.

"Due to vandalism we are unable to continue the decorations," Mrs. Hicks said early this week.

The Hicks, who live seven miles west of Canyon on Farm Road 1062, have decorated not only their house but the entire front yard. The decorations included a nativity scene, reindeer, Santa Claus, a small church, and even music was piped to the front yard.

But not this year.

The speaker for the music was taken last year by vandals, and many of the 2,000 lights have been taken by passers-by.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

Everyone wants to be happy; why is it so difficult?

Psychologists agree that a child is programmed to be happy or unhappy during the first year of life — especially the first three months.

For an adult to reprogram himself is not easy, but with adequate help it can be done — provided he wants to change.

It is difficult for an infant to relate to several people. This may account for the fact that the first and last children are usually more emotionally stable than the middle children in the family. They get more of Mother's attention.

Perhaps the new baby's need for a limited society was the reason the Creator arranged for his mother to feed him.

Time was when infants thrived their first three months on an exclusive diet of mother's milk. That arrangement kept mother close by. And in that day ulcers in elementary children were unknown.

The reason usually advanced by the atheist for his disbelief in God is that he cannot believe an all-wise, all-powerful, loving Creator would permit suffering and inequities in the world.

The atheist ignores the fact that there was no suffering or inequity in the world until man disobeyed God. And he discounts how much misery could be wiped out even now by simple obedience to the Ten Commandments.

God said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). But how does man spend most of his time, talents, and energies? Getting, getting, and more getting! Is it strange he's so unhappy?

If giving brings happiness, what should one give, and to whom?

If love and security are the most basic needs, should one not start by supplying these at home?

If every American gave adequate love and security to his own family, what effect would it have on our burgeoning welfare program? Broken homes? Juvenile delinquency? And our annual 3 billion dollar mental hospital bill?

Children are prone to follow the example set by parents. When father and mother are kind to each other, and considerate of the other's happiness and welfare, children are likely to establish the same pattern toward parents, each other, and in the homes they build.

When a child is deprived of love and security, he's not likely to achieve recognition or develop much self-esteem. And the new experiences he has are not usually conducive to creative expression.

How can a child who grows up with a procession of babysitters feel loved or secure? If his own parents do not esteem him enough to give him their time and attention, how can he feel of value?

It's impossible for a babysitter to provide much in the way of new experiences. Parents usually want their children to stay right where they leave them until they pick them up. And children in custodial care are generally forced to adhere to schedules that leave little room for creative expression.

Few Americans would deliberately maim their children emotionally. Why then are so many emotional cripples growing up in America?

Parents are so busy making money or seeking recreation that they fail to stop and ask themselves why they are doing what they are doing, or to evaluate the consequences.

How many people who grew up in material poverty really resent it? But note the bitterness of those who grew up emotionally deprived.

A survey was made of 1000 successful men — not mere money makers, but men who blessed the world through their work.

Three hundred were farmers' sons; 200 started as newsboys; 100 were printers' apprentices; 100 began in factories; 50 started as common laborers on a railroad. Only 50 had wealthy parents to give them a start.

How many parents are depriving their children of true riches in an attempt to give them things that money can buy?

If love and security are the keys to happiness, should they not be provided to children at all costs? Can they be provided by hired help or institutions?

Shouldn't emotional cripples seek help as readily as the victim of broken bones? After all, emotional suffering is far more painful than a broken leg, and no more likely to heal without help.

To attain happiness one must abide by the rules. They are found in Ex. 20:3-17.

Arraigned

Roy Joe Stevens, II, and his wife, Debbie, were arraigned Tuesday afternoon on charges of burglary of a private residence at night. Stevens was released on $3,500 bond and his wife was released on $2,500 bond. The two came into the sheriff's office at noon Tuesday and gave themselves up, according to Sheriff L. S. Johnston. The charge resulted from the burglary of the residence of Johnnie Boone on Hix Drive. Keith Stevens was released on $1,500 bond last week on the same charge. The property taken from the Boone house was found in a house rented by Roy Joe Stevens, II, on Hix Drive, and under an abandoned water-trough in a gulley on a place leased by Piner Stevens, according to Sheriff L. S. (Slim) Johnston.

Horton Trials Set

The trial of Leon C. Horton held in Canyon last week is over but the case is far from begin completed as far as most of the people involved are concerned.

Trials on two more charges of theft by false pretext have been set in Randall County, one for Jan. 10 and the other for Jan. 24, according to the district attorney's office.

The trial set for Jan. 10 involves 36 shares of Gulf Oil Corporation stock belonging to Robert L. Roberts.

The case set for Jan. 24 involves 10 shares of Standard Oil Co. stock belonging to Robert's aunt, Miss Jesse Forsythe.

Horton was found guilty Wednesday and sentenced to the maximum sentence of 10 years in the state penetentiary for the forgery of stock transfers and the power of attorney of Roberts.

Roberts and Miss Forsythe have been missing since Aug., 1970.

George Dowlen, district attorney, said following the trial, "It couldn't have been better."

Harris Hampton, assistant DA, said "The trial went just like we hoped it would."

He said that he felt the states most effective witness was James Leroy Lewis, the handwriting expert.

"Up until then, it was one witnesses word against the other but Lewis put graphic evidence before the jury for them to see," Hampton said.

Hampton said he felt the other harmful testimony to Horton during the trial came from Horton himself. "It was just not believeable," Hampton said.

Al Bergeron of Dallas, companion and bodyguard to Roberts said following the trial, "The trial didn't achive the main objective as far as I am concerned. My only interest is in finding my friend and his aunt. The money is not important."

Bergeron said he had worked on the case almost full-time since August of 1970 doing investigative work on his own.

"I can't even concentrate on my business any more," he said. "It is a full-time job trying to find these people."

Joe Flemming, Horton's attorney, will return to Canyon Dec. 27 for the formal sentencing of Horton to 10 years.

Flemming said following the trial that he had no plans to "go all the way" with Horton.

Ron Young of the Dallas Metro Squad, said that 17 charges could possibly be filed against Horton in Dallas. He said the charges, several which involve land theft, would be filed as soon as he could check with the district attorney assigned to the Metro Squad in Dallas.

Young said the land theft charges carried a maximum sentence of 20 years.

Young said he would continue to work on the case as he had since May 10.

The postal inspector in Dallas is also investigating the possibility of filing federal charges of mail fraud against Horton.

the voting precincts. This left some people who have already registered in Potter County in the wrong precincts for voting in the state election," Hale explained.

He predicted the county would either have to change the boundaries now, making the people who have already registered have to reregister, or throw the three counties into an at-large election.

The new legislative redistricting bill was sent to county clerks and judges around Oct. 27, and instructed county commissioners to make necessary changes to provide for divisions.

Randall County Clerk LeRoy Hutton filed his copy as part of the public record on Oct. 27.

A period of 30 days was given to have the redistricting completed.

As of Tuesday Potter County commissioners had not made the necessary changes.

Trustees...

The audit was approved subject to the review by Supt. Jerry Jacobs and business manager Ray Schultz.

In other business the board heard members of the home economics and vocational agriculture departments explain in in detail the various programs underway.

Homemaking instructors noted girls begin the courses in junior high school learning more than cooking and sewing.

"We teach five areas in homemaking," one teacher explained.

These areas include home management, foods and nutrition, child care and development, clothing, and cooking.

When asked for suggestions to the program, instructors requested more small appliances and adding a second semester to several classes.

Feedlot management and the cooperative program drew high interest from board members as presented by the vocational agriculture teachers.

Explaining that ag begins in junior high school, the instructors stressed they would like to expand the department primarily with content.

They also said they need 20 acres close to town for the school farm. Presently the farm is immediately behind the high school, but it is cramped for space.

"Many boys cannot keep their projects at the farm, they must go to a friend's farm," said James Walker.

Leroy Groves said he would like the property to be within bike riding distance so parents will not have to take the youngsters to the farm every day.

"We are teaching them responsibility," Walker pointed out. "And many of them have never had any."

He declared that the boys are surprised that the pig or cow has to be fed seven days a week. "We show them that if they don't take care of that animal or that crop, no one else will."

"And we want our students to learn to lead and to be led, not misled," Walker said talking of the Future Farmers of America.

"We are glad you came tonight," Moore told the tachers. "This is the type of report we like to hear. It is the meat and potatoes of our school."

ing.

Each building will cost approximately $3 million with each project to be funded by issuance of $2.5 million in building use bonds and $500,000 from constitutional amendment funds on hand, said Virgil Henson, financial vice president.

The regents also will be asked to approve preliminary plans of the proposed buildings and to authorize preparation of final plans, Dr. Cornette said.

Several other items were on the agenda, Dr. Cornette said, including the sale of the university-owned residence of the president, repair of the roof of the WTSU power plant and the installation of a humidifier in the gallery of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum where the wall screen paintings of Japanese artist Tenkei Tachibana are displayed.

Saturday Sale

The Starving Artist sale, sponsored by the Canyon High School band parents, will conclude Saturday in the Bellah Building.

The show begins at 9 a.m. and will close at 6 p.m.

Band students and artist from Canyon and Amarillo will exhibit their work at the show, according to Mrs. Margaret Reid.

Mrs. Fay Hand, left, and Mrs. R.W. Thompson poured during the Randall County Home Demonstration Council Christmas Tea Monday afternoon.

HD Tea Has Songs, Stories

Mrs. Earl J. Davis told a Christmas story and madrigal singers from Canyon High School performed at the Christmas tea given by the Randall County Home Demonstration Club Council Monday afternoon at the First Baptist Church.

Guests were served from a table centered with a Christmas arrangement of votive candles in red glass holders, poinsettias, red Christmas balls, greenery and pine cones.

Mrs. W. A. Branum is chairman of the recreation committee who made arrangements for the tea. Aiding her were Mrs. Carroll Todd, Mrs. Bill Head, and Mrs. Roy Leavitt.

David West Elected President Of Chamber

David West, vice president of the First National Bank, was named president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce for 1972 Monday night.

Serving with West will be Cary Magness as vice president and Raymond Raillard, treasurer.

West listed three main objectives for the organization in the new year beginning with a continued effort in promoting a western route of I-27 by-pass.

"We want to continue pursuing our interest in the western route," West stressed.

He also said the chamber would investigate the United Way plan for Canyon.

"We want to educate the people of Canyon about the United Way and then see if they want to join that organization in collecting money for many organizations and services," he declared. "Many Canyon people use the facilities in Amarillo, and we want to find out if we should adopt and support a United Way campaign in Canyon."

His third main interest will be to increase the membership in the chamber.

Money raising projects for the Christmas lights include a lighting benefit concert cosponsored by the chamber and the Canyon Eagle Band Nov. 14 in the high school auditorium. Chamber members will sell tickets to the concert and the net proceeds will be split between the two organizations.

The chamber will also play KGNC basketball team in January with proceeds going to the lighting fund.

Travis, he thought he could see the tailight on the pickup come on momentarily and then hit the Comet. Twing said that the pickup ran the stop sign at 44th and Travis.

Defense Attorney Charles Rittenberry contended that Sharp had been a passenger in the pickup because Officer Twing had radioed to other officers immediately after the accident that the driver of the pickup had left the scene.

Twing testified that following the collision it appeared that the pickup had swerved off and proceeded on. He said he then noticed the pickup sitting up in a yard.

Officer Pipkin also testified that when he first saw the pickup it appeared that there were two occupants.

that is the standard placed by the Corps of Engineers. We can't change it."

Loudder said the ordinance will be presented at the next commission meeting.

Commissioners also voted to join an engineer's study sponsored by the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission to obtain that portion of the comprehensive plan for the city.

"We never had an engineer's study done for the city," Loudder noted.

The study would cost the city around $1800 with an opportunity to obtain matching grant funds for the remainder of the cost.

The city paving policies were altered Monday night making it possible for only two-thirds of the property owners on a given block to request paving. Request must be made before Jan. 1 of each year.

Loudder said the paving contractor will collect assessments and a pay-out procedure may be worked with the contractor.

The city manager explained if two-thirds of the property owners do desire paving, and the others do not, an assessment program can be enforced, but that the city commission will final say about all paving programs.

Mrs. Irlbeck Plans Yule Dinner

Mrs. James Irlbeck, who is chairman of Randall County's Home Demonstration Club Council, plans for a crowd when she plans a Christmas dinner.

The mother of three and the wife of a busy farmer and rancher, Mrs. Irlbeck comes from a family of five children. Her husband is one of seven children. "And then, there are always grandparents, and great-grandparents."

"I'd rather cook than anything else," said the slender blonde who, "almost" has a degree in home economics. She also loves to decorate her country home, but said that sewing makes her nervous.

She has held "all the offices" in Pleasantview Home Demonstration Club, teaches Sunday School at First United Methodist Church, and is active in the Irene Elder Circle of the church Women's Society for Christian Service.

She represents Randall County on the board of the Panhandle Economic Program, which is currently placing emphasis on the home and trying to bring families closer together, she said.

She and her husband are adult leaders for the Jowell 4-H Club and they do a great deal of entertaining. "We just have friends and their families in," she said. "We take our children where we go."

In busy times, she also helps her husband outdoors. "I love to work with the cattle, and I even drive the tractor occasionally."

News Brief

Registration for fourth, fifth, and sixth grade boys and girls who are interested in playing Kids, Inc. basketball will be at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the WTSU Fieldhouse, according to Dr. A. J. Luquette, who is helping to organize the league.

A fee of $4 will be charged, he said.

PE Fraternity Sponsors Cage Tourney For Food

The Phi Epsilon Kappa, West Texas State physical education fraternity, basketball tourney is scheduled to get underway at 5 p.m. today.

There will be 18 WT intramural teams participating in the tourney, which is to be held in the all-purpose room of the Activities Center.

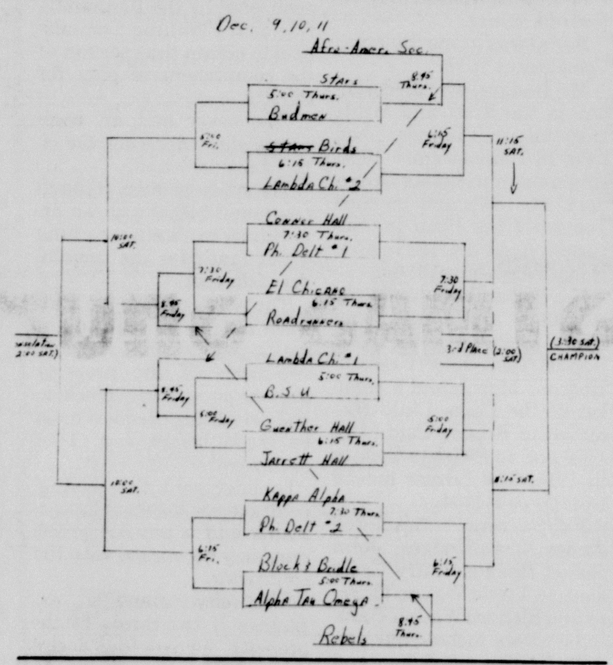
The tourney will resume action at 5 p.m. Friday and again at 10 p.m. Saturday and will go until its completion.

Admission to the tournament is one can of food which will be donated to the Catholic Family Services, Inc. That group will donate the food to needy families in the Panhandle.

Entrance fee was $5 per team, which helped pay for the first, second, third and consolation trophies that will be given.

Greg Ferris, spokesman for the fraternity said, "We are happy that we have 18 teams this year, but eventually we hope to expand the tourney so we can also have a high school tourney in conjunction with the intramural tourney."

A 10-member all-tourney team will be selected after the conclusion of the contest. Members of the Phi Epsilon Kappa will select the all-tourney team and will officiate all games.



White Teams Drop Three To La Plata

Canyon Junior High's White teams dropped three games to La Plata of Hereford Monday night.

The ninth grade squad edged up on La Plata to end the game on the wrong end of a 50-48 score. The first quarter ended 12-4 in La Plata's favor, but Canyon spent the next three quarters playing catch-up and almost made it.

Adrian Foil was the White's leading scorer with 14 points. Steve King had 13. Foil was also leading rebounder with nine.

The ninth-graders will play the ninth-grade Purple team at 7 p.m. Monday at the Junior High gym.

The eighth grade White team finished behind La Plata's eighth-graders 35-17. Tom Dawdy led the Canyon scoring with 7 points. Allen Shankles was leading rebounder with seven.

The team will play in the Boys' Ranch Tournament tonight, Friday, and Saturday. Their next home game will be Monday at 6 p.m. against the Purple Team.

Seventh graders played a 49-38 defeat, in which James Walling scored 15 for Canyon's high point honors. Ricky Cooper tossed in 12 points and Dennis Howell was leading rebounder with 11.

The seventh-grade team will also be entered in the Boys' Ranch Tournament this weekend. On Monday at 5 p.m. they will play the Purple Team here.

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News About it. Telephone 655-2141, or stop by the News office on the west side of the square.

Ducks At Lake

Approximately 60,000 ducks and 500 geese were in the area of Buffalo Lake Wildlife Refuge this week, according to Paul Ferguson, refuge manager.

Ferguson said the number of birds in the area was probably up this year over last year due to an increased amount of surface water in the lake.

About 44,000 Canada geese usually winter in the Panhandle, Ferguson said, and the number that stay on the wildlife refuge depends on the amount of water available.

Since the winter blast has hit the area so early, he said, many of the ducks will go south that normally would have stayed in the refuge.

Ferguson said that the birds were having no problems with food due to the recent snow. He said the grain was available to the birds in the fields as well as a lot of natural food from the flooded vegetation on the refuge.

Girl Eagles Top Dalhart, Quitaque

The Canyon girl Eagles added two more wins to their season standard this week.

Monday they whipped Dalhart 43-25, then Tuesday they topped Quitaque 54-24.

Lynette Slack canned 18 points against Dalhart and 20 against Quitaque to lead the girl Eagles in both tilts. In the Dalhart contest Marilyn Read scored 18, Chris Tucker scored two, Kim Killingsworth scored six and Kenda Hood scored four.

In the Quitaque battle Miss Tucker had 12 points, Miss Read scored eight, Ginger Curry scored two, Lynn Bowes scored two, Miss Killingsworth scored four.

Head coach Bob Schneider mildly praised the Eagles defensive unit saying, "The defense did a pretty fair job." Joy Williams was the standout for the team in both tilts.

Miss Williams had a grade of 10 against Dalhart and a grade of 14 against Quitaque. According to Schneider a grade of eight or better is considered good.

"It is kind of hard to say if we are strong or not," Schneider said, "but we will be able to tell after the Muleshoe tournament."

The girl Eagles are in Muleshoe today competing in that tourney. They were scheduled to play the host team at 10 a.m. If they win in that tilt they will play the winner of the Dimmitt and Slaton game.

Sheriff's Office Gets New Car

The Randall County Commissioners Court accepted a bid of $3,588 Monday from Imperial Chevrolet for a 1972 Chevrolet Impala for the sheriff's office.

The car was purchased to replace a car that was wrecked. Imperial Chevrolet did not include a bid for the wrecked car.

The other bid submitted was from Collins Motor Co. on a 1972 Plymouth Fury 3. The bid was $3647 with no trade-in and $3197 with a trade, allowing $450 for the wrecked car.

The court decided to keep the wrecked car and use the parts on other county vehicles as they are needed.

Commissioners held a half-hour executive session for the announced purpose of discussing personnel. Under state law governmental body can discuss only items on a posted agenda and only personnel and land sites in closed meeting.

Neither personnel or the executive session had been included on the courts official agenda.

George Blackwell of Blackwell Insurance Agency met with the court to present a policy to provide county employees and officers with property damage coverage.

A law passed by the Texas legislature made the old liability policy carried by the county illegal. The new policy will go into effect Jan. 1.

The court transferred $25,000 from the road and bridge fund to the right of way fund to allow buying the right of way for Loop 335.

The court discussed the Bi-City Bi-County Health Unit charges to Randall County, No decision was made on the charges at the Monday meeting.

The charges to the county this year have increased approximately 10 per cent over last year. The charges to Randall County for this year are $11,603.97, an increase of $1,208.65. The total budget for the health unit is $416,232. The increase to Randall County stems from an increase in rural population.

Arthur Fields, vice-president of Kids Incorporated of Amarillo, met with the court to explain the Kids Incorporated program and to ask for funds from the county.

The court allotted $2,200 to Kids Incorporated in Amarillo and $200 to the Canyon Summer Recreation Program.

In other action, the court approved the installation of engine kits in two county maintainers at a cost of $388 each and accepted a check for $1,848 from Colonel Ernest Booch covering probation fees from September through Nov. 18.

Recruits Visit WT Campus

West Texas State played host to 23 prospective football players last weekend, as recruiting season officially got underway.

Those recruits visiting were: Dennis Smelson, tackle, Mark Groves, defensive back, and Jeff Burk, tight end, all of Odessa Permian; Johnny Callison, linebacker, Eddie Richardson, fullback, Randy Goss, tackle, Steve Norrid, linebacker, all of San Angelo Central; Tommy Dunniven, quarterback, Ronnie Brown, halfback, both of McLean; Jackie White, guard, of Lamesa; Bob Brown, tackle of Lovington; Clois Burgess, fullback of Amarillo Caprock; Ronnie Hubbey, halfback of Clovis; Perry Senn, quarterback and David Smith, linebacker both of Navaroo Junior College; Bruce Whitley, tackle, Eddie Garrison, tackle, Melton Brooke, halfback, and Johnny Darden, fullback, all of Borger; Mike Crawford, Marcus Simmers and Bucky Sams, all of Amarillo Tascosa; Ruwayne Stuve, guard and Johnny Hemphill, fullback, both of Abernathy.

The Marines have landed at West Texas State and Coach Gene Mayfield hopes "the situation is in hand," as the Marine Corps saying goes. The three (from left), Sgt. Mike Daly, 6-foot-3, 230-pound sophomore from Philadelphia, Pa., Cpl. Sam Baker, 6-5, 255, junior from Jacksonville, Fla., and Cpl. David Freeman, 6-3, 235, junior from Arlington, Tex., signed preenrollment applications and financial aid agreements with the Buffaloes Wednesday. All are lineman and played under Lt. Mike Zuffoto, former WTSU football player, and a coach at the Quantico, Va., Marine base. At right is Randy Matson, world record holder in the shot put and head of the WTSU Buffalo Club. Zuffoto will join the Buff coaching staff next year.

Eagle Cagers Make Changeover Slowly

"We are the only team in the state that has played six games and have worked out only two days," said B.B. Kendrick head coach of the Canyon Eagle cage team.

The Eagles were picked recently to be the top basketball team in district 1-AAA along with Levelland, but have captured only one win in seven outings.

"We are just having a hard time adjusting to basketball after football," Kendricks added.

Six of the ten team members were also football players. They finished their grid season on a Saturday and played a varsity basketball game on a Monday without the benefit of even one workout. "We played two games before we even got a chance to workout," Kendricks said.

"We started three to four weeks behind everybody else and I think we are still a week maybe a week and a half away."

Last week the Eagles did top Denver City, but according to Kendrick Tuesday night was the turning point. "We lost to Borger 82-70, but with 2½ minutes left in the game we were down only six points. They began to stall and we had to foul to get the ball and that is why they beat us 12 points. But, I thought we played better than we have played this year; we are starting to come around a little bit," Kendrick said.

John Green was the high point man for the Eagles in that tilt with 25. Mike Podzemny scored 18 points for the Eagles, but he foulded out before two minutes had elapsed in the second half.

"There is no comparison in running in cleats on a football field and running in tennis shoes on a basketball court. To be in shape for football, your muscles stay tight all the time because you are getting hit all the time. But to be in shape for basketball you have to be loose and fluid. That is the key for us right now," Kendrick commented. "We were also down mentally. I think there was a tremendous letdown after we lost that bi-district football game, but I think they have overcome that now."

Thursday night the Eagles will meet the Amarillo High Sandies in Canyon.

Buffaloes Win Two

West Texas State University's "Maroon Madness" basketball team opened its season impressively last week, scoring 100 points twice to get two home wins.

The Buffaloes of coach Dennis Walling started slowly in both games, but got their "Four, plus one" offense going in the second halves.

Steve Davidson, the 6-7 Flushing, N. Y., senior, set a school record with 32 rebounds and tallied 28 points in leading the Buffs to a 100-78 win over Fort Lewis State Wednesday night in Amarillo's Civic Center Coliseum.

Ray Golson, who hit for 20 against Fort Lewis, totaled 33 in Saturday's 100-84 decision over the University of Texas at Arlington.

The Buffaloes take their 2-0 record on the road this week against three rugged opponents. They face Weber State Tuesday night in Ogden, Utah and they have not beaten the Wildcats at Ogden in three previous tries.

CHILDHOOD NOSEBLEEDS ARE COMMON

The three most frequent reasons for a child's nosebleed are a dryness of the mucous membranes, rubbing or picking at the nose during sleep and a small ulcer area in the nose. If repeated often, consult a physician.

Often the problem can be corrected by improving the humidification in the home and the application of white petroleum jelly to the inside of the nostrils to prevent dryness. If needed your doctor can, in a simple procedure, cauterize a small ulcerated area.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Gene Howe News

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

Well, our fearless principal, Luther B. Lawless, is attending a Principals' Convention in Dallas — guess he has gone to learn how to be a principal...

A get well wish to Mrs. Don Gregory who is visiting in one of the hospitals. We hope she will soon be back home doing her thing.

Guess you know by now that spiffy Becky Newman is going to marry Roy Daum on Dec. 17. Hope they tie that knot up real tight. (You know that Becky is our capable secretary at Gene Howe Elementary).

Happy Birthday to Frank Hanson and we send a bit of cheer to him via this by-line.

The Sherman Joneses were delighted to have their daughter, Marsha, home for the holidays. It seems as though when Marsha started back to college at Abilene Christian College her motorcar proceeded to stop in Plainview, and she was lucky enough to hitch a ride on to Abilene with some gallant young boy going to the same place. In any event, Daddy, Mommie, and brother, LeeDon, tootled down and got the car and took it down to Marsha this past weekend. And, Mother, Oleta, reports that Marsha will be back home before too long for the Christmas holidays.

Happy Birthday to Teresa Richie.

The Ocie Towery family motored down to Monroe, Louisiana, recently to see Ocie's and Josie's folks. Ocie reports they had a real nice time and sure enjoyed going going down to God's Country. While down in that general vicinity — the adults, along with inlaws and outlaws, journeyed over to Vicksburg, Mississippi, to see where the Big Battle was fought, and 17,000 Union troops are buried there.

Happy Birthday to Phyllis Ford.

Talked to Mrs. Guy (Doris) Bufkin and she reports that everything is quiet on the homefront.

A get-well wish to Mrs. John Hayden.

Several events going on at Gene Howe — the program with the sixth grade in conjunction with the Junior High Choir that was scheduled on the 9th has been rescheduled for the afternoon of the 12th at 3 p.m. at the Canyon Jr. High — ya'll be sure to catch this.

Also the 4th and 5th grade classes from Gene Howe will sing at 4 p.m. at Western Square, that is the Skaggs Shopping Center at 45th and Western. This all takes place this Saturday, the 11th. Be sure and go by. Also the Gene Howe Band, under the direction of Mr. Laramore, will perform with the Sixth grade choir at the P.T.A. meeting this coming Monday nite. Be sure and attend — surely one of the best programs of the year. See you there!!!

Happy Birthday to Harris Storlie.

How about those faculty members at Gene Howe — their gift to the children this year is the melodrama "Rags to Riches" presented by the Alpha Psi Omega. But, by the time you get this, it will already be history, but what a nice manisfestation of their affection for our chiluns.

Understand that Darlene, Kelli and Darla Campbell recently motored down to Dallas with Darlene's brother and his family, the Darrell Wakefields. Had a real nice time.

Gotta run, yall phone me your latest happenings...376-9853 or 352-2089.....pmh

Umbarger News

BY SUSAN DOLLE

It is winter time. Snow, flu, geese, ducks and pheasants prove it. Come Saturday morning, many men and boys will be tramping slowly through the stubble fields, trying to flush out the large number of pheasants that have been nesting on the ground. My husband always reminds me of how much more beautiful the cock is than the hen. Maybe I should tell him of the short pheasant-hunting season, Dec. 11-19; it doesn't take long to find the proud birds!

Sixty-thousand ducks are resting at Buffalo Lake now that the playa lakes are freezing In his census, Milton Suthers counted around 500 Canadian geese too. The bird population at the lake will increase with the cold spells.

St. Mary's Altar Society enjoyed a Christmas party at its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night. Gifts for a baby layette were donated to Catholic Charities office in Amarillo as well as canned goods. A devotional, "A Gift for Jesus," was presented by the group. Mrs. Lee Haschke and Mrs. Robert Koch directed games. Refreshments were served by Msdms. Bill Gerber, Ray Gerber and Bernard Grabber.

Professional traveler Harvey Artho of Wildorado, his wife Armaline and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brockman, toured the states of Washington and Oregon for two weeks. Before returning last Saturday they had visited an old army buddy and attended the golden anniversary of Mrs. Brockman's cousins, the Bill Lulays.

Many couples from Umbarger attended the PGC banquet and dance in Amarillo Monday night at the Holiday Inn West. Guest speaker for the evening was the noted Dr. Jarvis who kept his audience laughing.

District distance dialing initiated Dec. 1 by the Mid-Plains Rural Telephone Cooperative is very convenient. The numbers to use before the area code number are 1 and 4.

Palo Duro Soil and Water Conservation District held an information session on Minimum Tillage, in the Knights of Columbus hall in Umbarger last Friday. The slide presentation presented by Allan King of the Amarillo area office of the SCS and Don Dolle of the Canyon work unit was viewed by fifteen interested farmers. Minimum tillage is an innovation in farming; it is the practice of maintaining two crops in one field with a minimum of times the ground has to be cultivated. (My definition is used here-not that of the SCS)

Pistols and Petticoats Square Dancing Club will hold its Christmas party on Dec. 19. A gag gift will be exchanged among members and guests. The club is also making plans for its first anniversary dance with Mrs. Romona Allen as chairman. Each club of the Panhandle Square Dancing Association will be extended a special vitation for the anniversary early in February.

The R.D. Friemel family entertained a German guest recently. Fran Josef Loddenkemper, who married Margaret Averbeck, Mrs. Friemel's cousin, was in the U.S. for a business trip for the Westfalen Separator Co. His tour took him to New York, Los Angeles, Hawaii, Japan, Russia, and then back to Germany within a two-week span. He told the Friemels that it is hard to believe the differences between the places he stopped. He was impressed with the large farming operations and the cattle industry. Mrs. Friemel was able to see some slides of her relatives in Germany, one of whom is a ninety-year old aunt who still rides her bicycle.

Mrs. Gay Cagle reads the story of the Three Kings from Matthew at the Fete de Noel celebrated by Alliance Francaise Monday night at the WTSU Student Activities Center. The French Christmas observance climaxed with the cutting of the Christmas log.

Mrs. Mary Harrison took over the duties of president. Mrs. Gladys DeWees is the group's new vice-president, Mrs. Linda Elliott, secretary, and Mrs. Janet Laycock, treasurer. Committee chairmen also assumed their responsibilities.

The installation was under the direction of Mrs. Cecil Matthews.

Mrs. Dick Jackson was in charge of the program. She was assisted by Mrs. Walter Cranmer.
